

DAY AFTER THE FISTIC BATTLE

JOHNSON'S VICTORY OVER JEFF.
FRIES A BLOW TO SPORT-ING FRATERNITY.

LEAVING RENO QUICKLY

Sports Hastening Away on Every Train—Johnson Might Have Won Earlier in the Fight.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
Reno, July 5.—The great fight has now gone into history and the sporting fraternity are leaving Reno as fast as the trains can carry them away. The exodus started as soon as the battle in the ring was over and trainloads of disappointed sports left for the east at once.

Immense Receipts.
The receipts for the promoters are now estimated at between $250,000 and $270,000 and the attendance is placed at from eighteen to twenty thousand people, breaking all fight records previously held. Of this the fighters receive as their share, Johnson, the winner, $120,000, and Jeffries bank account for his terrible beating is $117,000. This includes their share of the bonus and picture machine money.

Still Downcast.
Jeffries is still very downcast over his defeat and remains hidden from public gaze. He will leave for California just as soon as all arrangements can be completed. His victorious opponent, Johnson, departed for the east at two o'clock this morning. He was much elated over his victory and his followers were very happy.

Prolonged Fight.
The sporting authorities now all agree that Johnson prolonged the fight until the fatal fifteen round so as to give the picture men a sufficiently long enough film for show purposes. From the fourth round the end was seen by all the old time followers of the ring and when Jeffries dropped to the floor in the fifteenth, falling through the ropes, to be helped back by his brother, Jack, it was merely a matter of time.

Best Man.
Johnson was the best man all the way through the contest in which he punished his opponent most severely, landing on him at will and inflicting serious injuries to his eyes and head.
Jeffries failed to show any of his old time form and was defeated more by age than anything else.

RACE RIOTS FOLLOW JOHNSON'S VICTORY

Over a Dozen Killed and Six Hundred Wounded in Battles Between Whites and Blacks.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
Chicago, Ill., July 5.—The Johnson victory was followed by scenes of race riots all over the country. Today's returns show that there were over a dozen killings in race riots, and thousands are under arrest for fighting over the fight outcome. There was almost as much rioting in northern cities as in the south, but the killings were chiefly in Dixie. The number injured in the various riots totaled about six hundred.

In Quiet.
Although Chicago is the home of Jack Johnson and most colored people boast, truthfully or otherwise, of some acquaintance with him, the celebration of the black man's victory did not bring out the thousands of disorderly conduct numbered only thirty-six.
In Washington, D. C., July 5.—In the clubs of negroes and whites last night over the fight at Reno, Thomas Stuttle of the marine corps had his throat cut and another white man has consequences of the brain. Both are seriously injured.

Over a hundred fight fans who showed color prejudice last night, paid fine, had sentences suspended, or went to jail. Hundreds of others escaped trial by forfeiting their bail.
In Philadelphia.

Philadelphia, Pa., July 5.—A hundred whites and blacks, some with bandaged heads, were before magistrates today. Some were fined, others sent to jail for long terms. All were participants in riots last night.

Race Riots in New York.
New York, July 5.—As an outcome of the big fight there were scenes of street fights and negro hunts early this morning. A negro waiter was killed and another negro was nearly lynched. The white men who killed the negro escaped.

Many Arrests.
Atlanta, Ga., July 5.—Scores of arrests were made following the outcome of the Reno battle.

In Rhode Island.
Newport, R. I., July 5.—Twenty-four hate conflicts between negroes and whites as a result of Johnson's victory occurred last night. In many instances the white soldiers were the aggressors.

Sailors Fined.
Norfolk, Va., July 5.—Nearly a score of white United States sailors were fined in court today for assaults on negroes last night following the announcement of the fight.

LEADING RAILROAD STOCK PRICES DROP

General Downward Movement After Opening of New York Exchange Leaves Market Weak.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
New York, July 5.—After opening gains in many of the leading railroad stocks a general downward movement developed and the tone was soon extremely weak.

WILL CONTINUE TO ALLOW PRIZE FIGHTS IN STATE OF NEVADA

Gov. Dickenson Says Fight Was Run Off Satisfactorily and Laws Will Not Be Changed.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
Reno, Nevada, July 5.—The manner in which yesterday's fight was run off will mean that Nevada will not change its system of allowing prize fighting. Governor Dickenson said the fight demonstrated that there is still one free state, and though much agitation is expected he expects no change in the laws. Reno today has a bad taste of the morning after. The town was preparing for hilarity if Jefferies won. The Johnson victory made the town go dark like a stuffed cupdle. Mrs. Jeffries is busy making poultices for her husband's torn and bruised face. Johnson says he will go on the stage and then rest. His private car was the scene last night of a great revel. After the battle Jefferies could only force thin soup through his battered lips.

CENTENARY OF THE GREATEST SHOWMAN

Wreaths and Garlands Placed on Honorable Statue of P. T. Barnum at Bridgeport, Conn.

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)
Bridgeport, Conn., July 5.—Persons who passed the heroic bronze statue of Pheasant T. Barnum which adorns one of the public parks of this city were reminded by several costly floral wreaths about the base of the monument that today marked the centenary of the birth of the famous showman, who has been called the "father of the American circus." The birthplace of the man who introduced Tom Thumb, the "sacred white elephant" and other famous freaks to the public who sold Jenny Lind $1,000 a night to tour America, and who later organized and managed "the greatest show on earth," was the little town of Bethel, this State, but it was in Bridgeport that he made his home during the greater part of his career and where he established the permanent headquarters of his colossal circus enterprises.

During his lifetime Mr. Barnum bestowed many gifts upon the city of Bridgeport, and there still exist here many reminders of the famous showman, chief among them, of course, being the winter quarters of the circus which still bears his name. But members of his family have long since departed the city. The Barnum country place, Marlin, at Seaside Park, was sold to strangers within a few years after the showman's death. Mr.
Barnum's widow has resided abroad for many years. While traveling in Egypt she met Demetrius Callias Rex, a Greek, to whom she was married in 1856. They returned to the United States after the wedding and it is said that they would have gone to Marlin to live only that the home of Mr. Barnum stood in the park in front of the house.

The statue could not be moved, as it belonged to the city.
Callias Rex died in 1896, after a wedded life of a year. It is said that during that time he made a big hole in the fortune of the American showman. About ten years ago the widow married a Frenchman for her third husband. Their married life proved unhappy and within a few years they were divorced.

IN BIG FOUR WRECK
Middletown, Ohio Wreck of Yesterday Shows Death List Is Growing Rapidly.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
Middletown, Ohio, July 5.—Three victims of the "Big Four" New York flyer here yesterday, died from injuries during the night, bringing the total number of dead to twenty-three.
Reports indicate that injured persons to the number of thirty-seven will die.

DOROTHY DEACON IS WEDDED TO RINCE
Beautiful American Girl Married to a Prince in London This Morning.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
London, July 5.—Dorothy Deacon, daughter of the late Edward Parker Deacon, and Prince Antoine Albert Rudizwill were married today.

THIRTY POISONED
BY THE ICE CREAM
Louisville the Scene of Sad Happening at a Social Gathering—Some May Die.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
Louisville, Ky., July 5.—Thirty persons were poisoned after eating ice cream at the home of J. W. Bonds, at a suburban near here last night. It is feared three might not recover.

FOR WINNERS
The $25 a day license fee required for tented dramatic entertainments under the management ordinance, as amended by the common council last week, has prohibitive for the winningers here and upon arriving here and ascertaining how the law lay, the management decided to cancel the dates and give the performances in Waukegan, instead.

The dramatic performances were to have been given here over a period of two weeks commencing with the Fourth of July.

Wedded at Court House Ethel W.
Walsh and Emma Peterson, both of Rockford, secured a marriage license and special permit to wed at once at the court house this morning and the ceremony was performed in the county clerk's office. Licenses have been issued to Anne M. Peterson and Eliza C. Winter, both of Bradford; John M. Bedford and Floy H. Carter, both of Beloit. Miss Carter is a daughter of Deputy Sheriff Floyd Carter.

BEGINNING TO NIBBLE AGAIN.

TRACK AT BRIGHTON BEACH ABANDONED

Famous Course Will Be Devoted to Auto Contests and Eventually Cut Up into City Lots.

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)
New York, July 5.—The summer meeting of the Brighton Beach Racing association began today at the Brighton City track at Yonkers. The transfer of the meeting to Yonkers is taken to mean the permanent abandonment of the Brighton Beach track as far as the turf is concerned. The famous old course which has been the scene of some of the greatest races run in America is to be devoted to automobile speed contests and later will probably go the way of Morris Park and other noted tracks in the vicinity of the metropolis and be cut up into building lots.

AGED MAN FREED OF MURDER CHARGE

Dr. Louis Zorn of Kansas City Will Have Liberty Tomorrow After Five Arraignments.

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)
Kansas City, Mo., July 5.—For the fifth time in eight years, Dr. Louis Zorn, an old and well known resident of this city, will be arraigned in court tomorrow on the charge of murder. Nevertheless, it will be a happy day for the aged man, for the case against him will be dismissed at the request of the prosecuting attorney and for the first time since June 23, 1902, Dr. Zorn will enjoy his liberty.
On the date mentioned above Dr.
Zorn shot and killed Albert Sechrest, who was one of his tenants. Dr. Zorn, whose hobby was the growing of hollyhocks in his tenant's yard, Sechrest objected and Dr. Zorn insisted.
The argument led to a fight which ended in the landlord shooting and killing the tenant.

Dr. Zorn was tried four times. The first two trials resulted in jury deadlocks. The third trial, which took place in 1905, ended in a verdict of guilty and a sentence of fifteen years in prison. In 1907 the supreme court reversed the judgment and sent the case to the lower court. A fourth trial was held and again the jury disagreed. It is said that the various trials have cost the aged defendant half of his fortune, which was estimated at $100,000 at the time the killing took place.

COLOR CLUB WOMEN MEET AT LOUISVILLE

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)
Louisville, Ky., July 5.—Arrangements are practically completed for the annual convention of the National Association of Colored Women's clubs here next week. The committee in charge expects the meeting to be the largest ever held by the association.

CATHOLIC EDUCATIONAL ASSOCIATION CONFERS

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)
Detroit, Mich., July 5.—Following the celebration of mass at St. Peter and Paul's church, this city, the annual convention of the Catholic Educational Association of the United States began its regular sessions this morning at Detroit college. The principal feature of the initial session, following the presentation of the annual reports, was a paper on "The Pastor and Education," by Mr. Rev.
Stonsinger Thomas J. Shahan, rector of the Catholic University of America.

TO SPREAD GOSPEL OF HOG RAISING

First Organized Campaign in Texas Was Inaugurated in City of Dallas Today.

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)
Dallas, Texas, July 5.—The first organized campaign to spread the gospel of hog raising was inaugurated this afternoon with the departure from this city of a demonstration train which will make a three weeks' tour covering a large section of Texas.
Stops of a day each will be made at various points, where interested persons will be invited to listen to practical talks by experts in every branch of the hog-raising and marketing business. The movement is backed by the Fort Worth Stock Yards company, which has secured the cooperation of the railroad and others interested in the hog-raising industry.

ist in Hawaii, took place today at versity. Both he and his bride are interested in educational work here.

WINNIPEG FOUR IN KENLEY REGATTA

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)

London, July 5.—The annual Henley regatta opened today. No college eight from the opposite side of the water figures this year in the contest for the Grand Challenge Cup, but the Winnipeg four is entered for the Stewards Challenge Cup, while in the challenge diamond scull competition Canada is represented by James Cosgrove of the Argonaut Rowing Club of Toronto. For the first time in many years Belgium has sent no contestants to the regatta this year. The absence of the Belgians, however, is offset by the unusual number of entries from Germany and Holland.

In view of the world-wide attention always given to the "Royal Henley," it is interesting to recall how insignificant was the beginning of the great Thames regatta. Although as early as 1829 the rival university crews of Oxford and Cambridge met on what is now the Henley course on the Thames, it was not until ten years later that the actual regatta was organized. In 1839 the inhabitants of Henley formed a committee, with the Earl of Macclesfield as patron, and decided to offer a silver cup valued at one hundred guineas as "the Henley Regatta Grand Challenge Cup," to be rowed for annually by amateur crews in eight-oared boats. Later the Stewards Cup for crews of four and the diamond scull competitions were added to the program.

The first regatta was held on June 14, 1839, and was notable for a great struggle between Oxford and Cambridge for the Grand Challenge Cup.
The prize eventually falling to "Trinity" of the latter university. Local amateurs competed in a four-oared contest and there was also a race between London watermen. These three events completed the first program of what was destined to become the biggest and most fashionable aquatic meeting in the world.

Meeting Soon: According to W. S.
Jeffries, president of the board of the and police commissioners, a meeting of that body will be called in a short time to consider the charges brought by City Attorney Maxfield against Mayor Cade and Chief of Police Appleby. Due to the absence from the city of Dr. St. John, one of the commissioners, the board has been unable to meet up to the present time.

DEPARTMENTS MET AT BOSTON TODAY

dress National Educational Association Tonight.

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)
Boston, July 5.—This was another busy and interesting day for the thousands of teachers in attendance on the annual convention of the National Educational Association. No general sessions were held during the day but instructive meetings were held by the various departments. James Y.
Joyner, president of the association, delivers his annual address at the general session in Tremont Temple tonight.

WORLD'S CONGRESS OF SWEDENBORGIAN

Gathers in London to Celebrate Centennial of Society and Honor Its Founder.

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)
London, July 5.—To celebrate the hundredth anniversary of the Swe-denborg Society of London and to honor the memory of Emanuel Swedenborg, the founder of their faith, hundreds of prominent representatives of New Church organizations throughout the world assembled in London today and began a four days' international congress. The assemblage is not an ecclesiastical or sectarian one, but a meeting to be devoted to the consideration of Swedenborg's contributions to science, philosophy, and psychology, as well as in theology to the higher thought and investigation of the world of today.

The Swedenborg Society of London, in celebration of whose centennial anniversary special exercises are to be held during the week, was founded in 1810. For a hundred years the society has been the great central publishing agency of the writings of Swedenborg as well as of the collateral literature of the New Church body. The extent of the society's publishing propaganda is evidenced by the fact that its stock now includes editions of Swedenborg's works printed in Latin, English, German, Swedish, Norwegian, Polish, Finland, Welsh, French, Danish, Mayan, Russian, Italian, Dutch Arabic and Hindu.

The roll call at the opening of the congress today in the Grosvenor Hotel, showed a large and representative attendance. Edward John Brodford, a widely known educational writer, presided. Among those present were many delegates from all parts of the United Kingdom and from the United States, France, Germany, Sweden, Denmark, Norway and Russia, and from the West Indies, Australia, and other distant lands.

Included among the American delegates are the Hon. John Barnard of the supreme Court of the District of Columbia, Alfred Adams of Pennsylvania, the Rev. Louis G. Hook of Ohio, Prof. Lewis P. Hite of the Cambridge Theological School, the Rev.
Julian K. Smith of New York, the Rev. H. Clinton Hay, editor of the New Church Review; the Rev. James Rood of Massachusetts; Frank Russell of Washington, D. C., president of the Swedenborg Melancthon Association, and the Rev. S. S. Seward of Michigan, president of the General Convention of the New Jerusalem.

HARD LABOR IS THE SENTENCE IMPOSED

Convicted Slayer of Colonel Swope Is to Have Life Sentence for Crime.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
Kansas City, Mo., July 5.—Dr. Hyde, convicted of having poisoned Colonel Swope, was sentenced to life imprisonment at hard labor by Judge Latham today. Pending an appeal to the state supreme court the prisoner will remain in jail here.

OPENINGGUN IN THE CAMPAIGN FIRED BY SPEAKER BANCROFT

Speaker of Assembly Denounces Insurgency as Rebellion in Address at Chepek Chautauqua.

(BY UNITED PRESS.)
Lake Chepek, Wis., July 5.—The address by Speaker Bancroft of the state assembly at the chautauqua yesterday, it now develops, was the opening gun of the campaign of the Wisconsin Taft Republicans, and it is likely that Bancroft will now appear with the same address in various parts of the state. The Chepek assembly has been the place at which several important political speeches have been delivered this summer, and some representative of Senator La Follette will probably appear before the session closes to give his side of the insurgent question. The Bancroft speech was fiery, and declared that insurgency was rebellion against the national republican party by a small minority, rebellion that threatened to turn the nation over to the democracy.

LIQUOR TROUBLES REACHED A CLIMAX

Fuse of Big Bomb Failed to Work and Home of Anti-Saloon Man Was Not Blown Up.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
Portage, Wis., July 5.—Because the fuse failed to work, a bomb in the shape of a tomato can, filled with dynamite, failed to go off in front of the restaurant of William Langford at Rio, near here. The bomb is believed to have been placed there by enemies made by Langford's recent fight as a member of the Law and Order League. A short time ago a large stone was hurled through the office window of C. E. Berg, also a member of the league. A hard fight on the saloon question which resulted in the revoking of two saloons created a great stir in Rio. The bomb was taken outside of the city limits and set off. A hole four feet deep was torn in the rocky soil.

REASONS ADVANCED FOR RAISE IN MILK

Milk Dealers Give Statement Telling Why They Asked For Raise in Price.

(BY UNITED PRESS.)
Milwaukee, July 5.—The milk shippers who are on a strike have drawn up a statement to the people, made public here today, in which they tell why they are entitled to more for their milk. The city sanitary authorities, they say, visit the farms and force the farmers to put in cement floors in the barns, kill cattle which are sick and thus reduce the profits to nothing. The farmers say that pasturage is burned up by the hot sun. The society of Equity will take the farmers' side in the controversy.
Residence districts do not yet feel the milk shortage.

WALKS IN SLEEP; SEVERELY INJURED

Man Falls From Top of Train at Fond du Lac While Wandering About Asleep.

(BY UNITED PRESS.)
Fond du Lac, Wis., July 5.—J. A.
Brommer of Stevens Point walked in his sleep Sunday night in the North Western railroad yards here and fell from a car, breaking his leg and suffering severe injuries upon the head and shoulders. He is a farmer enroute to Nebraska, where he was going to take up a claim.

OLD RESIDENT OF CLINTON IS DEAD

Dr. Joseph B. Crandall Passed Away
Yesterday at the Advanced Age of 92 Years.

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)
Clinton, Wis., July 5.—Dr. Joseph B. Crandall, for many years a resident of Wisconsin, and of Clinton, died at his home here July 4 at the advanced age of ninety-two years. He was born in Washington county, Rhode Island, May 3, 1818. He was married in 1832 to Maria T. Horrick and lived for a number of years in Canterbury, Conn., where he was in the drug business. They came west in 1854, settling first in Madison, then moved to Clinton in 1872, where he continued to reside up to the time of his death, with the exception of two years spent in Salt Lake City. His wife died in 1888. Two children survive him: Helen, now Mrs. Ezra T.
Sprague, and Clarence A., second son.
Dr. Crandall died in 1882. The funeral will be held Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock.

Arm Blasted.
In a drunken brawl John Peterson was badly cut up by Thomas Brown the two muscles of his right arm just above the elbow being severed and a long gash being cut over the left eye. The injured man was taken to the office of Dr. W. O. Thomas, who dressed the wounds. Brown, as soon as he committed the deed, got into a buggy and drove out of town, going south. Marshal Baldwin swore out a warrant for his arrest, and with J. W.
Niman and C. C. Smith started after the fugitive in the latter's hot touring car. Brown was arrested at Belvidere.
Peterson has been sick a good share of the spring.

MURDERER SHOT BY CHILEAN SOLDIERS

Was Convicted of Killing Servant and Burning the German Embassy Last Year.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
Santiago, Chile, July 5.—William Beckert, former chancellor of the German legation here, was shot today for the murder of his Chilean messenger

Paris Green is made from Arsenic and Copper, Arsenic being cheaper, it contains too much when it burns the foliage. Cheap Paris Green is sometimes mixed with salt. The kind sold in paper boxes is often times years old before it reaches the local store. We have always sold one brand of Paris Green which we buy in barrels direct from the chemical factory. Its fresh, full strength does not contain free arsenic and we give you a full pound. Don't pay forty cents a pound for paper, don't burn up your crop, don't do your work twice—buy the best. Our Paris Green is cheaper as it does the work. Our price is no higher. Badger Drug Co., Milwaukee and River streets.

HERMAN KNOFF DIED AFTER LONG ILLNESS

Beloved Resident of Janesville For Many Years, Passed Away Sunday Afternoon.

Herman A. Knoff, a resident of Janesville since prior to the Civil war, died Sunday afternoon at 5:15, at his home, 1320 West Bluff street. He was 78 years old last April and for the past five months had been sick. In February he passed through a severe attack of pneumonia and seemed to have made a miraculous recovery, when bright's disease developed, and his decline from its effects has been constant during the past three weeks.

Mr. Knoff was born in Germany on April 27, 1832, and came to this country with his father and family in 1848, settling at Johnston, N. Y., where the father established a leather tanning industry. The son came west and was married to Maria Elizabeth Knoff, in Chicago, on April 4, 1858. Two years ago they celebrated their golden wedding anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. Knoff were among the oldest members of the First Congregational church.

Mr. Knoff is survived by his wife, whose tender care was comfort and consolation during his last long illness; by two daughters and three sons—Richard and Herman, in Wyoming; Mrs. Grace Harlow and Mrs. Eva Berrett, Chicago; Robert of Madison; and also nine grandchildren. A number of these, warned of the approaching end, arrived during the past week. A granddaughter, Miss Pauline Knoff, daughter of the late Edw. Knoff, a son of the deceased, journeyed from Wyoming, but arrived twelve hours after her grandfather had passed away. Two brothers and a sister of the deceased also remain—Hugo Knoff of Mankato, Minn.; Henry Knoff and Mrs. Henrietta Luther of Johnston, N. Y.

Mr. Knoff spent nearly forty years of his life in the grain business in Janesville. In early days he was a business partner of the pioneer grain dealer, Daniel Jacobs, father of Carl Jacobs bond, the well known singer and composer. Among Mr. Knoff's employers were William Rodson, father of the late Charles Rodson and founder of the Rodson mill business, which was a prominent Janesville industry when wheat was king in this neighborhood; also Orin & Clark, J. S. Draper and H. Damp & Son. His last employment was as custodian of the grant school building, near his home, where for four years he was beloved by the children who attended that school.

The funeral was held this afternoon at the home, 1320 West Bluff street. Rev. T. D. Williams of the Carroll Methodist church officiated in the absence of Dr. David Denton of the Congregational church, who was compelled by an engagement to be in Waterloo, Iowa. Interment was made in Oak Hill cemetery, in the family lot, where lies a daughter, Miss Lillian who died twenty-three years ago.

HAD FUN WITH PRESIDENTS

Children of the White House Seemingly Had No Fear of Chief Executives.

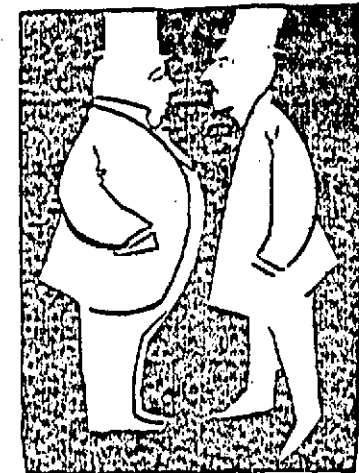

Agnes Carr Sage, in her book, "Boys and Girls of the White House," has included some stories of children who, without living in the presidential mansion, were privileged to have their fun at the president's expense. Among them was the adopted daughter of Dolly Madison. Who was the president is not told, but the chances are in favor of Van Buren. The little maid stood a good chance of knowing Van Buren, Harrison, Tyler and Polk in the White House. Van Buren is the one who would have enjoyed the joke most heartily.

Madame Dolly's closing days would have been desolate, indeed, but for Anna Payne, the child of a brother in Kentucky, whom she adopted late in life. This young girl was her constant companion after the death of Mr. Madison, in 1836, and a veritable sunbeam in the home which she made at Washington within a stone's throw of the White House.

A prankish little creature was Anna, and up to all sorts of mischief. Thus, one first of April, she invited the one who was then president to dine, without mentioning the fact to her aunt.

When that worthy lady was horrified by the unexpected arrival of so troublesome a guest, Anna flew in and laughingly informed them both that it was only an "April fool."—Youth's Companion.

ARRESTS FOR DRUNKENNESS

Were Only Five in Number—"Mysterious" John Kendrick Jailed for Insulting a Lady.

While the "cup that cheers" figured extensively in the Fourth of July observances of quite a number of Janesville people, the city was remarkably free from drunkenness and disorderly conduct and comparatively few arrests were made by the officers.
"Mysterious" John Kendrick who claims to be a woman-hater, indulged, while intoxicated, his usual propensity for insulting with coarse epithets the first lady who may attract his attention on the streets. He was unable to pay a fine of $10 and costs for drunkenness in municipal court this morning and went to the county jail for twenty days.
Joseph McElroy pleaded guilty to a charge of drunkenness and paid a fine of $2 and costs. Thomas Dailey, James Sullivan, and Charles Hastings were unable to pay similar amounts and went to the hospital for five days each.

INDEPENDENCE DAY QUIETLY OBSERVED

No Serious Accidents Reported Many Minor Injuries Occurred to Small Boys.

Although the celebration of Independence Day was exceedingly quiet in this city, there were numerous burns and explosions of a minor nature reported which will serve as reminders of the Glorious Fourth but fortunately, accidents of a serious nature, are conspicuously absent.
Among the more serious casualties was that which occurred when Edwin Head, ten years old, touched a lighted match to a mass of loose powder which flamed up violently and burned the lad severely about the face and neck in addition to burning the corner of his right eye. Dr. Mills, who attended him, does not think that the lad's sight will be affected.
The four-year-old child of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schumacher of Chestnut St. is also suffering from the results of a peculiar accident. The youngster secured a dynamite cartridge, such as are used in mines, and placing the explosive in his mouth, chewed it. The resulting explosion burned the child's mouth severely and for a time he lay in a coma. Dr. Mills, who was called, thought it best to subject the child to an operation and at the present time, it is thought that the danger of tetanus has passed.
Most of the minor accidents taken care of by local physicians resulted from fire crackers and no wounds resulting from the breaking of cheap revolvers have been reported. About fifteen celebrators were forced to seek medical assistance during the day but in a majority of cases, the wounds were of a trifling nature.

CELEBRATION CAUSE OF 4 SMALL FIRES

Prompt Work of Department in Responding to Alarms Prevented Much Damage.

Fireworks and other explosive means of celebrating the Glorious Fourth resulted in four ineffectual blazes yesterday which the fire department quenched before great damage had resulted. The first alarm was turned in at 11:30 a. m. as the result of a rubbish fire in the rear of the Carle block on Milwaukee St. One stream of water was sufficient to subdue it. At 1:15 a smoldering blaze in some rotten planks in the Milwaukee St. bridge resulted in another run for the department and at 10 in the evening the roof of the office at the Schaefer-McKey lumber yard received attention. The last call was turned in at 11:30 and was the only one of the night. The cause of the blazes was a still alarm. The cause of the blazes was a still alarm. NO OBLIGATIONS.

Miss Ross Frankly States Her Side of the Question.

In making the distribution of the 2-lb. sacks of Jersey Lily Flour, Miss Ross, who is soliciting orders for the flour, says: "I meet a lady here and there who feels backward about accepting our offer of the free sample, feeling that it entails an obligation to buy, and I wish to say, through the press to every lady in the city, that we are giving away the samples of flour in return for your patronage. This flour is given only for the purpose of testing Jersey Lily, and we are glad of the opportunity to have you test it. If the flour you may buy at an equal price we would not expect your patronage. So many women, however, are ordering the flour that the campaign is proving a great success for our company."

W. H. GREENMAN DIES SUDDENLY ON MONDAY

Passed Away At Utica, New York, at Five Yesterday Morning—Will Be Buried Here On Thursday.

William H. Greenman, until recently a resident of Janesville and for the past year, in charge of the hotel store of the Hart and Bailey company of which he was an equal partner, died suddenly Monday morning at the home of his brother, George Greenman, at Utica, New York. The sad tidings of his death reached Janesville yesterday morning and his many friends were shocked at the news of his sudden end. Mr. Greenman has been a resident of Janesville for twenty years coming to this city from the west. He was a man of unusual business ability, a true, honest friend and a citizen whose worth could not be overestimated. He was born at Bridgewater, New York state and received his early commercial training at Watertown and Utica. He came to Janesville to become associated with the firm of Hart, Bailey and Company and on the retirement of Mr. Hart a year ago moved to Utica to take charge of the hotel store of the company, being an equal partner in the business. He went to Utica some ten days ago for a rest, his wife accompanied him. His daughter, Miss Mabel Greenman, resided in Utica and started out yesterday morning on receipt of the news of the death of her father. (Word) was received here today that the remains accompanied by Mrs. Greenman and Mrs. Mabel, and Mr. and Mrs. George Greenman of Utica, a brother of the deceased, will reach Janesville at noon on Thursday and the services will be held at the Chapel at Oak Hill immediately. Reverend David Bouton officiating. Mr. Greenman had a rare faculty of making friends and his removal from Janesville to Utica, was a source of real regret to Janesville people. He always retained a lively interest in local affairs and was prominent in everything started for the betterment of the city. He was fifty-three years of age. His mother passed to the world beyond but four months ago and there is left to mourn his loss, his widow and daughter, two brothers, Edwin of Watertown and George of Utica and a host of friends both in Utica and Janesville.

LOCAL AUTOIST IN ACCIDENT SUNDAY

Car Strikes Stone That Throws it into a Ditch—No One Was Injured But Machine Was Damaged.

Herman Priehipp and a party from Janesville narrowly escaped serious injury and the automobile in which they were riding was badly wrecked in an accident which occurred Sunday afternoon about three miles north of Edgerton. Mr. Priehipp was proceeding north when his machine struck a stone with sufficient force to puncture the front tire. The shock was strong enough to cause the machine to swerve into the ditch, snapping off several fence posts and bringing up against a telephone pole. Had the driver and party remained in the machine, they undoubtedly would have been injured as the fender of the auto was badly wrecked and one wheel broken. As it was, they jumped and escaped without a scratch. The car itself was put out of commission and placed in a nearby lumber yard until it could be hauled back to this city, while the occupants were brought home in P. H. Korsta machine which happened to be near the scene of the wreck.

JEFFRIES OFFERS NO EXCUSE FOR DEFEAT

Declares Antagonist Is Great Fighter—Johnson Says He Never Was in Danger.

Reno, Nev., July 5.—"I lost my fight, but I did not have the soap of youth I used to have," said James J. Jeffries after he had been whipped by "Jack" Johnson.

"I tried. That's all I ask credit for doing."

"I was beaten fairly and squarely. I have no excuses of any kind to make. Let all credit be given Jack Johnson for his victory. He is a truly great fighter."

"I would have remained the retired and undefeated heavyweight champion of the world but for the fact that the American public demanded of me that I try to take away the championship from a black man."

"I don't regret the fact of my defeat so much as I do that it was a negro who beat me, thereby establishing himself as the best man in the world. I would rather have been beaten three times over by a man of my own race than to have been the means of placing a negro in this position. It was to tear Johnson away from this honor that I consented to fight. I shot at the mark but missed it. There is nothing left to do but to congratulate the winner."

"The color line should be drawn outside the ring. It cannot be dragged inside the ropes. When two men face each other for battle one of them must be discriminated against because his skin is black. Keep him out of the ring entirely or give him fair play."

"I took a chance at winning the greatest honors that could have been heaped upon a professional boxer. Johnson took a chance with me. He won. There should be no 'ifs' and 'ands' about the battle or the manner in which it was won and lost. I went down trying with every ounce of energy in my body to bring back the world's heavyweight championship to the white race. Johnson won strictly on his merits as a fighter. That's all there is to it."

Jack Johnson said:

"I fought a good fight and I fought a different fight than I ever did before. Wasn't it right for me to go in and take Jeffries' style of fighting away from him? Instead of making him come to me I went after him. There was no stage of the contest when I was in danger. Maybe I could have ended it quicker, but I preferred to take it slowly but surely. I think the pictures will show that I did most if not all of the fighting."

HAHNEMANNIANS IN SESSION.

Society Embracing Strict Homeopaths Hold Convention at Kansas City.

Kansas City, Mo., July 5.—The presence of delegates from England, France, Italy, Japan, Hawaii and other foreign lands lent added interest to the opening session today of the international Hahnemannian association, which will be in convention for three days. G. P. Waring of Alhambra, Cal., is the president and J. H. King of Chicago the secretary.

This society embraces the stricter homeopaths who are committed to one drug at a time and oppose vaccination, serum-therapy and the use of all crude drugs. It is now 31 years old and has members in all parts of the world.

Wing of Peterhof House Filled With Art Treasures Is Burned.

Paris, July 5.—A wing of the historic Peterhof Palace of St. Petersburg, containing treasures of untold value, was destroyed by fire, according to a dispatch received here from St. Petersburg. The blaze was of incendiary origin, according to the report, and the loss is at least $2,000,000.

Alta Pass, Ill., July 5.—North-bound Mobile and Ohio freight No. 32, a double-header, went through a bridge five miles south of here, shortly after north-bound passenger train No. 4 had passed in safety. Rolla Thornton, one of the engineers, was killed and William Hansen, the other engineer, and Frank Willis, a fireman, were seriously injured. All came from Marquette, Ill.

Doing Things Well.

This duty of doing one's proper work well, and taking care that every product of one's labor shall be genuinely what it pretends to be, is not only left out of morals in popular speech, it is very little instilled on by public teachers, at least in the only effective way—by tracing the continuous effects of ill-done work.—George Eliot.

Women Always Propose.

A woman who probably knows says that women do not propose any more in leap year than in any other year, for they always do the proposing. The man may say the formal words, but the woman has led up to it so beautifully that it is all in the world that the man can do. And she says that any married woman will tell you that women invite their husbands-in-to be proposed.—Exchange.

Castles in the Air.

There never was a righteous castle in the air that did not inspire to something good for the soul. The castle may tumble to the ground or float away in the smoke of the dream, but if architecturally and morally correct, the castle in the air may leave a few good thoughts that will be of use in the everyday struggle for existence.—Manchester Union.

Danger in Cigar Cutters.

The German health officials are considering abolishing the device for cutting off the ends of cigars that form a familiar part of the equipment of tobacco shops. It is alleged that many smokers make use of the instrument after having already placed the cigar in their mouths and therefore render possible the transfer of germs to other smokers.—Medical Record.

Criticism as Is.

His name has not yet acquired that synthetic power which clothes its irradiance of ideas in a setting of formal beauty—which holds variety and diversity of material as the glowing center of a perfectly cut jewel, or organic order and definiteness of statement being the facets which multiply its brilliancy and enhance a hundredfold its intrinsic value.—Charles Anthony, in Star.

Would We Chose Our Relations?

Little Austin, on his return from the picnic, after gazing long and fixedly at the plain looking brother of his companion, seated across the car: "Boy, Tom, if that boy over there wasn't your brother, and you just met him, would you choose him for your brother?"—Harper's Weekly.

Tents For Vacation Trips

Quite necessary on a well appointed "roughin it" vacation. There is satisfaction in knowing your own tent, when out on a trip, in knowing that it is substantial, that its stays are right, that it is waterproof and that it is light and compact. You can have your tent made to order here at a cost that does not exceed the first cost of a ready-made tent. You can have it made in any individual style you desire, embodying all of your own ideas as to what a tent should be and you will have satisfaction in knowing that it is absolutely right.

For Healthfulness

Many people are sleeping in tents these nights and find great enjoyment in doing so, besides obtaining the healthful, invigorating effect that comes from sleeping out-of-doors. We make special sizes of tents for lawns or porches.

Children's Tents

Children's play tents give the youngsters that touch of the out-of-door life which they crave. Get one for the children, place it anywhere in your yard and let the youngsters live outside for the balance of the summer. It will well repay you to see their rugged complexions that come from perfect health. Phone and our expert will call with full information about tents and their purposes.

THE NEGRO EASY VICTOR

JACK JOHNSON KNOCKS OUT JIM JEFFRIES IN FIFTEENTH ROUND.

BEATEN THRICE TO FLOOR

Onslaught of Colored Champion In Resemblance of White Man Proves Himself Not to Be the Wonderful Pugilist of Old.

BY C. E. VAN LOAN.

Kenosha, Nev., July 5.—Jack Johnson showed that he is clearly entitled to be called the greatest heavyweight fighter in the history of the prize ring when he knocked James J. Jeffries out in the fifteenth round of their encounter in the arena here.

Johnson not only outclassed Jeffries, but actually played with the big white man and he played with Tommy Burns and Stanley Ketchel. The end, which it came with the suddenness of a thunderclap, was not a surprise; it had been in plain sight from the fifth round. There could have been but one ending and even the most rabid Jeffries fan could not deceive himself into thinking that the white man had a chance after the fifth round. It was not that he was taking much punishment for the blows Johnson landed were not enough to have beaten a strong man of ordinary vitality.

Old Form Missing.
Jeffries did not display a resemblance of his old-time form. There were none of his short, determined rushes; none of his trip hammer blows to the body, and when after the fifth round the negro began handling Jeffries from the clinches and easily blocking any attempt at retaliation, there was nothing to do but wait for the end of the fight. Instead of the old Jeffries, we had a man who ducked and clinched and fumbled away with both hands in the clinches while the negro systematically and methodically whipped up either hand to the face, bringing the blood in streams.

When Jeffries lurched out of his corner to begin the fifteenth he shuffled into a clinch. There was nothing about his leg action to indicate that he was groggy, but he seemed tired and his face, over Johnson's shoulder, was a picture of defeat. The right eye was closed to a blue slit in the puffed flesh; the left eye was swollen, the nose was split and blood was trickling from the lips.

Johnson looks determined, his lips parted and his eyes shifting from side to side. There was no smile on his face and he forgot to nod to his friends at the ringside. Once he led with his left and the two men came together, looking for a few seconds and then disengaged himself, backing slowly away toward the west side of the ring and toward his own corner.

Johnson following with left extended. Again the men clinched and this time Jeffries came to a halt with the upper rope across his back. This time it was Johnson who broke from the clinch and as he did so he drove the right hand to the body, following it immediately with a left to the point of the chin. Jeffries' hands dropped at his sides and he went double, slowly collapsing to a sitting position. He tried to rise but fell over backward half in and half out of the ring, his legs over the lower rope.

Lifted Back into Ring.
Jack Jeffries moved over and placing his arms under his brother's shoulder, helped him back into the ring. Jeffries was helpless and staggering, and just as his knee cleared the floor, Johnson stepped forward to deliver a right to the jaw, but Rickard pushed the negro aside, Jeffries away over toward his corner and Johnson stepped in with a deliberate jaw punch which sent the white man down for the second count. This time Jeffries lay on his side for four seconds, and then slowly crawled to his hands and knees. From the west side of the arena came the yell:

"Stop it, Tex! Stop it!"

Negro Mauls Jeff.

Jeffries lurched to his feet just at the count of ten and as he raised himself from the floor he spat out a great mouthful of blood. The last blind instinct of the fighter warned Jeffries to clinch and he hung on with what little strength he had left while Johnson mangled him clear across the ring. Sam Beemer lunged through the ropes, but Rickard's back was turned and he did not see the acknowledgment of defeat until Jeffries had been floored for the third and last time.

Jeffries, so close to the timekeeper that he might have touched him, heard the count this time and yowled 1219 to 10.

The Son of His Mother.

"I am an completely the son of my mother," wrote Huxley, "down to even the movements of my hands, that I can hardly find in myself any trace of my father, except an inborn faculty for drawing and a hot temper, with that tenacity of purpose which unfriendly observers sometimes call obstinacy." Mrs. Huxley had a mind far above the average of women of her class, and Prof. Huxley as a man carried out many of the theories born of his mother's brain.

WOMAN'S PAGE

The Evening Chit-Chat

By RUTH CAMERON

AM I know, being disappointed at the last moment by the lady of his choice, took his young sister to the theatre the other day.

It was evidently the first time in years he had been anywhere with her, and he made a discovery.

He could not do it to her later. "Never thought much about 'Sis' one way or the other before, but do you know she's really a good deal brighter and better looking and all that than a lot of the girls I used to tote around. I'm going to try it again some day."

He evidently belongs to that large class of people who would discover a source of pleasure hitherto hidden by its very nearness, if they would only cultivate their families.

Do you cultivate your family? If you are a man, have you taken pains to find out what a nice person to take to the theatre, or some other good time occasionally, sister is, and what a good fellow on a fishing or hunting trip father can be, or what a nice evening you can have just visiting with mother once in a while?

If you are a girl have you ever discovered how much father would like to "head" you to the concert or the party once in a while, or how wonderfully mother can fit in with your crowd of girls and become one with them if you give her half a chance, and what excellent manners and conversational qualities big brother may develop if you treat him in the same way you do your masculine friends?

If you haven't discovered these things, suppose you start on a voyage of discovery right away. I think you'll find it worth while.

Have you by any chance some old friend whose annual birthday and Christmas gifts, from very long giving, have become rather a puzzle to you?

If you have, you may be interested in a plan that a girl I know has taken up. She has such a friend.

She has given her haphazard gifts for years, until recently she conceived the idea of giving her each Christmas and birthday a silver spoon, until the set of a dozen should be completed.

After that she plans to start on the forks. The girl who receives these gifts is simply delighted with them.

There is a certain joy, you know, in systematic acquisition that adds immensely to the value of a gift.

I have previously suggested gradually giving a child a set of books as he grows up. I think a collection of silver would be an equally good gradual gift for a girl child.

Here's to the woman who has a smile for every joy, a tear for every sorrow, a consolation for every grief, an excuse for every fault, a prayer for every misfortune, an encouragement for every hope.—Salute Fox.

Isn't that the kind of toast you want the man who loves you to be able to make to you, my girls?

And isn't that the kind of toast you ought to be able to make to the girl you are going to marry, young man?

Can he?

Can you?

SAVE THE CHILD.

BY MARY HUSSELL.

The innocence of girls is one of the most beautiful things in the world.

We stand in awe of it—more so when we are older and more worldly-worn people.

Some of the sweet, serene old ladies of the old school seem to carry the fragrance of that childish innocence through life with them.

No wonder that there is a great hesitation in the hearts of parents before giving the child a knowledge of life in its reality.

But how can we keep their girls in childish ignorance?

It is one of the most difficult problems of life, as viewed by parents.

What shall a boy or girl know of life and its pitfalls for unwary feet? Is it the part of wisdom to open eyes that look out so innocently and reveal the dark shadows that lurk along the way? How shall the knowledge of "things as they are" be given the child, and its nature still be left free of taint?

One needs to be wiser than Solomon to deal with this vital question.

Then there is the other side of the picture. Go into any juvenile court room. Spend a day or two there, and you will know that there is more than a hint of ignorance than from knowledge. More danger awaits innocence than it does the more sophisticated child.

If we could only wrap our children around in our love till it formed an impenetrable barrier between them and the guilt and sin and pain of life we would do it without a pang, though it would rend out our own lives. This is no figure of speech. Mothers and fathers are capable of wonderful self-sacrifice where the child is concerned.

It is a sad and sorrowful thing that the sin of the world are so visited upon children that they must be armed with certain knowledge to be safe from situations which would endanger them.

Parents need to say, "you must not go there," or "you should not do that," without giving any reason. The child was supposed to obey without questions. Some did, of course, but many searched out the reason for themselves and found with it a heritage of woe. It is not enough to warn without saying why some things are wrong and others must be avoided.

To do this excites the curiosity of many children. They do not believe all they hear. They have been scared by make-believe stories before. And before the parent or child knows what the danger is the blow falls.

No, we must not shut our eyes to reality, and the emotion of today is the result of the training of yesterday and a thousand yesterdays.

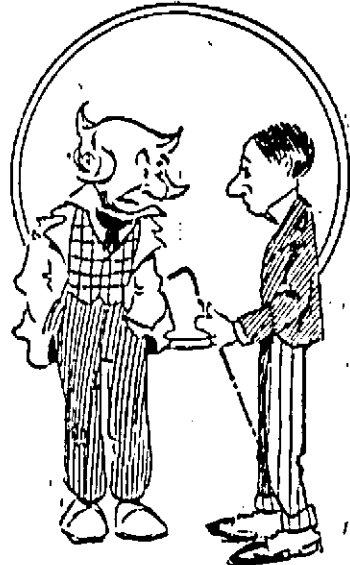

Let us be brave enough, and strong enough, and wise enough to speak the truth to our children and tell them tenderly and wisely, and earnestly where the dangers of life lie.

You would not send a child along a dangerous road in the dark without a word of warning, but that is what you do to your son and daughter when you send them out of life's path without a word of their dangers.

Let your words be a lamp to their feet. Let your love be a guide post for the way, and the children's power will not be hurt. It will only be strengthened, for, with eyes open to danger, will come a sweet blinding of souls to the true and better way of life.

Boys are as well worth saving as girls, though few parents seem to think so. Shield your boy, and make him your friend as well as your son.

Strange Death.

It would seem that there are still some causes of death which have not as yet come within the scope of the medical man's observation—certainly not of his registration. Thus we read of a man in a southwestern city who died as the result of having trumped his partner's ace.

And one of our contemporaries, who is more sophisticated than these matters than we are, commenting upon the incident, remarks that there is only one thing that is more positively fatal than trumping your partner's ace, and that is kicking the hind legs of a mule.

So far as we are able to learn, careful and complete prophylaxis is the only effective preventive.

Readers Are Wise.

Newspaper readers have learned that it pays to consult the advertising columns of their home paper when they want to buy anything. There they may find where the best is sold and often pick up bargains they would have missed if they hadn't looked over the advertisements. When a business man has something especially attractive in quality or price he makes use of printer's ink in these days, and it goes. The merchants know they are watching, and that's why they advertise.

Daily Helps to Health and Happiness

By GEORGE F. BUTLER, A.M., M.D.

To maintain health and ward off an occurrence of the malady the following vital points may be summarized to impress them upon the attention:

1. A generous dietary of nitrogenous food.
2. Free ventilation of dwelling and sleeping rooms by open windows, with wire gauze blind.
3. Adequate house heating in winter.
4. Boil all milk or cream previous to use.
5. Try to obtain eight hours' sleep every night; if not sound sleep, contract the hours to seven and rest in the day.
6. If debilitated with weak digestion, take rest in the recumbent position a quarter of an hour before and after meals.
7. Wear the loosest clothing possible, especially around the waist and lower ribs, to afford freedom in respiration.
8. Take systematic exercise daily in the open air on foot.
9. If means and station in life admit of a long holiday from time to time, live during fine weather in a tent in the open air or in a summer house for most of the day; and if unemployed pursue a hobby to occupy the mind.

THE HEAVENS IN JULY.

By Prof. Eric Doolittle of the University of Pennsylvania.

Mercury passes the Sun on July 19th. Halley's Comet only one-twenty-fifth as bright as it was, and only visible through a telescope.

Whoever looks at the heavens on one of the warm evenings of July will see the numerous summer constellations spread out before him in all their beauty. If he possesses a small telescope he will find hundreds of interesting objects as he explores the region of the sky after another. He may first be attracted by the many of the summer stars present. The deep bluish stars are believed to be in a very much expanded, almost nebulous, condition, while the red ones are far more condensed and surrounded by a heavy cloud of vapor. The yellowish stars, of which Capella is a good example, are at present in the same stage of their

which a very short time after setting is seen to rise again, being so near the pole of the heavens that it just misses being included among those stars which never rise and never set. The long water snake, which only stays with us for one month of the year has nearly disappeared in the southwest, while in the southeast there is found the interesting group Sagittarius, with its so-called milk dipper at C. It is between the stars of D and E that there occurs the most remarkable black hole of the heavens, a small, circular region, almost wholly devoid of stars, though surrounded on every side by the densely packed stars of the milky way.

Just rising in the east is the group Aquarius, and if toward midnight of July 23 the observer will watch this constellation he will see numerous four hours earlier. Stars, on account of its rapid eastward motion, is still to be seen low down in the northwest, but it is now much too far away from the earth to be a satisfactory object in a small telescope. Throughout the month it will rapidly approach the bright star Regulus, at F, Figure 1. It will finally pass the star, on August 3, on which date the planet will be north of the star, a distance almost equal to the diameter of the moon. At this time the two objects will appear as a striking pair of bright stars in the western sky. Jupiter, now the brightest object in the heavens, still shines out high up from the ground in the southwest. Its slow eastward motion among the stars can now be easily detected, for, while on July 1 it will be seen to be about half way between the stars G and H, Figure 1, on July 21 it will pass directly below the interesting double star at U, a motion just rapid enough to carry the planet completely around the heavens in 12 years.

On July 1 at 9 P. M. the moon will pass between us and the planet Saturn, but unfortunately this very interesting phenomenon will not be visible to observers in the United States, as the planet will not have risen at that hour. The next morndor star clouds and clusters of stars which he discovers in great numbers along the milky way, great swarms of stars whose stupendous extent baffles imagination. Next he may become interested in the many double stars he will find, those strange systems of two or more great stars revolving ceaselessly around one another. The study of how the distortions which these plastic yellow, slow-moving shooting stars which dart outward from a region just east of the star at H, Figure 1. These belong to a great stream of meteorites passing around our sun and with which our earth in its annual journey collides each year at this time. It is near the point from which these shooting stars appear to come that more than a century ago Sir William Herschel found what he thought to be a comet, but which he later ascertained to be the great new planet Uranus.

THE PLANETS.

Mercury passes the sun and enters the evening sky on July 19, but throughout the month is too near the sun to be observed.

Venus is still brilliant in the morning sky just before sunrise; it is moving rapidly nearer the sun, although it will not overtake it until November 26. The observer may have noticed the beautiful conjunction of Saturn and Venus on June 5, when these two bright planets were so near together

ing, however, the two bodies will still be seen close together, the planet lying just west of the edge of the moon. The two objects will then present a beautiful sight in a small telescope, the greenish color of Saturn contrasting strongly with the silvery moon. An even closer approach may be witnessed on the morning of July 29, when our satellite in the course of its monthly journey around the heavens again passes the planet. Saturn at this time will be seen a little below and to the east of the moon.

Uranus may be found with a small telescope with the help of Figures 1 and 3. It is in unusually favorable position, being exactly opposite the sun on July 16.

Neptune enters the morning sky on July 12 and cannot be observed during the month.

THE COMET.

During July the distance of the comet from us increases from 150,000,000 to 235,000,000 of miles. At this great distance its apparent displacement among the stars is necessarily slight, the entire motion during the month being only along the short path shown in Figure 1. On July 1 it will appear only 1-25th the part as bright as one month previously; it is no longer visible to the naked eye, though readily seen in a moderately large telescope. The tail during this month will doubtless entirely disappear, the comet presenting the appearance of a round, nebulous mass, just as it did four months ago. During the next few months this, with the enormously increasing distance, will grow smaller and fainter, and finally be entirely lost to view.

ERIC DOOLITTLE.

that they appeared as one to the naked eye. Since then Saturn has been pursuing its course to the west, and Venus has been moving eastward, so that they are now far apart. On July 1 Saturn rises two hours earlier than Venus and on July 31 masses produce in one another slowly change their paths as the ages go on, approaching to us undoubtedly how far they have progressed in their development from an original nebula is a chapter of astronomy full of interest. And in connection with the comparative ages of the stars he will find it very profitable to note the remarkable differences in color which

BIG BARN BURNED TO GROUND FRIDAY

Mysterious Fire on Farm Near Evansville Did About Two Thousand Dollars Damages.

(Special to this Gazette.)

Evansville, July 5.—Two large barns on Mrs. Della Bennett's farm, about four miles from here, on the Allison road, were totally destroyed by fire Friday evening. A spin of horses valued at about four hundred dollars belonging to the tenant, Mr. Lint, were in one of the barns and were smothered before they could be released. The blaze occurred about six o'clock and was of a mysterious origin, no one being able to account for it. Mr. Lint and the men had just brought the teams in from the field a few moments before and when they left the barn to go in to supper everything appeared to be all right, but in a short time smoke was seen pouring from the barn and the building was so dark that it was burned to the ground in less than five minutes. So rapidly did the blaze spread that a load of cows in the second barn was saved with difficulty. The loss on the buildings will amount to some two thousand dollars or more partially covered by insurance. Mrs. Bennett is planning to rebuild as soon as possible.

The marriage of Mrs. Ernst and Mr. Alfred M. Rozansky, both of Euclino, was solemnized Saturday morning, July 2, at the Methodist church in this city. Rev. T. W. North performed the ceremony. The couple spent Sunday with the bride's parents who live on the Janesville road, and returned to Racine the following evening.

The extreme heat and the dead calm of the past week has occasioned much anxiety and considerable inconvenience to farmers in this vicinity.
The mercury has registered from 101 to 110 for several days and there was not enough breeze to turn the windmills, and many have found it a terrific task to pump by hand a sufficient supply for their stock. A number have been obliged to invest in gasoline engines and a few have hauled water from the city. Farm crops in this locality are fast. Small grains are looking well. Corn is average year. Hay is a light crop, and barley fair. Corn as a whole is far behind other years although a few who were fortunate enough to get the seed in early have the fields standing fully "knee high" and a good healthy color. All crops are suffering for lack of rain.

Miss Belle Dennison will leave tomorrow for Moline, Ill., where she will join a party of teachers who will spend the next two months in traveling and sight-seeing in the western states. Salt Lake City, Yellowstone National park, and a number of large cities on the Pacific coast are some of the places they will visit.

Mrs. Harry Hayward is spending the week in Milwaukee visiting her sister, Meyer. Mrs. Eugene Wilkins accompanied her and before returning will also visit friends in Mewaukee.

M. E. Chubbuck of Towanda, Pa., is spending a few days with his uncles, Isaac Brink, and other relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Brink and their guest spent the fourth at a family picnic at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Carson.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Winston spent Friday and Saturday with her people at Johnstown.

Messrs. Jay Brink, George and John Thurman and Fred Slightam celebrated in Brooklyn and Albany yesterday.

Miss Maggie Gillies of Syracuse,
Ill., is home for a short visit.

J. R. Blaine and family and Miss Mable Meyer and family have been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs.
Samuel Frost.

Miss Emma Kuetz came home from Harvard, Ill., Saturday evening for a few days' visit with her parents.

Chester Miller and family were Brooklyn visitors yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Alber and children arrived from Janesville, Sunday, and will be guests of Mr. and Mrs.
Fred Winston. Mr. Alber only stayed over the fourth but his family will remain a week or more.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Barham of De-loft spent Sunday and Monday in Janesville.

Mrs. B. D. Billings and daughter, Bernice, of Madison, who have been guests of Mrs. C. E. Moore, left Tuesday for Chicago where they will go to Chicago, Ohio to visit his brother, thence to Niagara Falls and other points in the east.

Mr. M. Richmond and family were guests of Madison relatives Sunday and Monday.

Merton and Clifton Fish of Foot-ville spent Sunday at the parental home.

pastor of the Presbyterian church, Rev. C. R. Forsythe of Kintoblen, Ohio, a graduate of Allegheny Theological seminary of the class of 1910.

William Matthews, son of Julius Matthews, was taken to Janesville Mercy hospital Wednesday morning where he was operated on for appendicitis. The operation was successful.

Miss Della Witt is attending summer school at Wilkerson.

The M. E. society of Richmond held an ice cream social Wednesday evening at the home of George Keith. The cake and cream was delicious and the social was well patronized.

Mrs. C. Goddard and family attended the wedding reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Korschlock of Lima in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Ed.
Korschlock.

Miss Mary Peabody of Janesville spent the fourth with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Peabody.

C. H. Hall delivered his crop of wool to Janesville buyers last Saturday.

As WM. Williams was returning to his home in Richmond on Saturday his team of colts ran at a lively gallop down the road and made a wreck of his buggy. One of the horses jumped a wire fence on the McLean farm and was bruised and cut quite badly.
Mrs. Wagner and daughter of Whitewater are guests of her sister,

Mrs. R. Lorkie.
The Richmond ball team will play Johnstown on Sunday afternoon, July 10.

SCORES VICTORY IN HANDLING REPORTS

Gazette Made Public Results of Jefferson-Johnson Fight Round by Round in Record Time.

Hundreds of people availed themselves of the opportunity of listening to the returns from the big battle held at Reno yesterday, round by round, as furnished by the Gazette.
Not only was the bulletin posted at the Gazette's office, but others were distributed to all places of business on the east and west sides of the river. The majority of these places have been receiving the daily base ball scores and it was found possible to add two or three extra as ten copies of the reports could be taken at once on the typewriter.

The report came to the Gazette over a special leased wire of the Postal Cable company. It was furnished by the United Press Association who had a special corps of representatives at the ring side at Reno and sent the rounds out as fast as completed. It took but a few minutes for them to reach Janesville, the slight delay being in the Chicago office where the report was relayed to Janesville.

At the local office it was received by Manager Cunningham who made ten carbon copies. These were distributed by special messengers to the places where they were to be displayed and it took but a minute longer and all knew the results round by round. That the crowds appreciated the service was evidenced by the interest shown. The bulletin board at the Gazette office was surrounded by an eager crowd and all the other distributing centers report an equal interest shown.

It was unfortunate that arrangements could not be made to have supplied all who asked for the service with the report but this was impossible owing to the facilities for handling it. As it was those who received the report from other sources were many rounds behind the Gazette bulletins, the winner having been posted some minutes before the seventh round had been received elsewhere by the other service.

The Gazette was able to handle the report in the way it did owing to the fact it is a member of the United Press Association. This association furnishes both the state and a general news service daily. It being received in the office over a long distance telephone especially put in for this purpose and made for such work.
The Gazette also is a member of the Associated Press and could have received a similar report from that association had it wished to. It is therefore in a position to give the quickest and most accurate report of the world's happenings each day through the medium of these two news services.

BEAUTIFUL COURSE
FOR THE GOLFERS

State Tournament Next Week at La Crosse Attracts Attention.

La Crosse, Wis., July 5.—The state golf tournament to be held at La Crosse Country Club, also known as the Schlegel Club, will be played over what the La Crosse people claim is the most beautiful golf course in the northwest.

VIEW OF THE GOLF COURSE AT LA CROSSE, WIS., WHERE STATE TOURNAMENT WILL BE HELD.

by one of the enthusiasts:
"Nature's masterpiece, as a location for a nine hole course. Total length 3,298 yards.

"A combination of course calling for true golf, with an entire absence of monotony.

"Grounds are constantly maintained in championship condition and the putting greens are particularly fine, having water pipes from the city mains to each one.

"In forming the greens, care has been taken not to disturb the natural roll of the ground and putting on them, is an interesting proposition.

"Situation in one of the loveliest which the writings of Hamlin Gar-lands have made known.

"The land occupied by the links was owned by the government many years ago, by a man from New York state who bestowed upon it the name of his native town, Schlegelcote, which remains with us to our honor, and to the bewilderment of strangers.

The following shows the distance and height of each hole:

No.	Yards	Bogey
1. Low Bridge	158	4
2. Chateau	257	5
3. Ravine	190	4
4. Toboggan	405	5
5. Switchback	370	5
6. Hammering	550	6
7. Grand-dad	552	6
8. Pickadilly	150	3
9. Home	336	5
Total	3,298	43

As a matter of fact, the course probably requires more consistent steady golf for the bringing in of a perfect card, than any other Wisconsin course, least and probably than any western links.

The first hole, contrary to golf custom, is not a moderately short distance, but is a bogey five and stretches out 158 yards with a puzzling hazard at the outset. In the form of a bridge placed at bunker distance from the tee, forcing players to get a clean, fairly high initial shot to get a good start, or a bogey card.

This promise of trick golf at the first hole is thoroughly well maintained for the rest of the course and the player who brings in a card approaching bogey must have played par golf throughout the course.

The program this year will provide events in plenty for those who fail to qualify for the various cup competitions or who drop out as the tournament progresses.

Dear Yarn Mittens.

A Maine hunter and guide has a pair of mittens which mystify every one examining them. Last spring the hunter caught a yearling bear in a trap, and as the fur was too short and downy to sell as fur he shaved the skin, and his mother, a lady past 70 years, carded the fur, spun it into yarn and then knitted the mittens.—

Miss Gertrude Gibbons left Friday for Boston to attend the meeting of the National Educational Association. She expects to be gone about ten days or two weeks. Many interesting side trips for the visitors are planned.

Miss Blanch Florida, who is head trimmer in a large millinery store at Washington, Wis., returned home, Friday for her summer vacation.

O. H. Florida and O. L. Woodward were in Janesville on the fourth.

Clinton was very quiet on the 4th.
The stores were all closed most of the day and many of our people went to Darlen and Shoppers where celebrations were held.

Thomas Kizer and Bert Pratt went

John Loefler, a motorcyclist, who resides at the Empire Hotel, sustained a cut close to his left eye and scratches on the left side of his body Sunday evening about six o'clock in a collision with an automobile, No. 13176 W., supposedly of Madison. The accident occurred in the intersection of E. Milwaukee and Division Sts. a good rate of speed on his motorcycle and the Madison party were turning around intending to drive back down Milwaukee street to Huff street. The motorcycle struck on the left side of the car, and Loefler pitched headlong onto the pavement. His wounds bled quite freely and it was feared that his injuries were more severe, and Dr. Fred Sutherland, to attend the man. He dressed the wound and examined Loefler but was unable to discover any more serious injuries and had him taken to his room at the hotel for a closer examination. Loefler was able to be about today although he is not working.

When the motorcycle hit the automobile, the tire of the car was cut and the inner tube punctured. The fender was also bent. Loefler's machine had a pedal broken off and the engine was damaged. The Madison party, after ascertaining that Loefler was not seriously injured, fixed up their machine

✻ FORTY YEARS AGO ✻

Janesville Daily Gazette, July 5, 1870.—The Fourth.—In the city there were no general public demonstrations; no dusty procession to parade the streets with its squad of armed gendarmes and armed dignitaries at the head and calathumpan rear guard; no oratory of the day; no declaration of independence; no picnic in the shady grove. At the risk the Catholics held festival and dance during the day and evening, which was largely attended and well enjoyed. The Germans, at Roger's gardens, spent the day and evening most pleasantly. A well matched floor was laid and dancing kept up until far into the night. At the Driving Park, in the afternoon, baseball and pigeon shooting were the attractions. The Chicago Amateurs were here and in a friendly contest with the Mutants defeated them 39 to 8; and the Blue Jacket Club had its pigeon traps set and did most excellent shooting.

Pope Springs.
The Unitarian society of this city held a picnic at Pope Springs, which was largely attended. Prof. O. R. Smith of this city, was orator of the day, and did up the occasion in the best of shape.

Dear to Be Imported.
Local and Victoria sportsmen are going to make endeavors to bring to this coast red deer from New Zealand, which are to be located in the mountainous districts of Vancouver Island upon arrival. An attempt was started last year to import some of the deer species from England, but owing to the heavy freight rates existing the plan fell through.

It is proved that the red deer will thrive in the climate of this section of the coast, the only handicap to their life being the usual necessity of having to graze in sheep country, the sheep making short work of the grass available.—Vancouver Correspondence Portland Oregonian.

Clear Lake.
The inhabitants of Milton village and the country adjacent, with a sprinkling from Janesville, held their celebration at Clear Lake, south side, at 2:30 o'clock p. m., the procession left Milton square and proceeded to the woods which border the lake, where seats, tables, speaking stand, etc., had been erected for the accommodation of the picnicers. The oration of Dr. Whiting gave general satisfaction, and the other exercises were appropriate and well received.

Mount Hope.
The Mount Hope, north side Clear Lake, celebration was arranged for the benefit of the residents of Milton Junction, although there were many from other towns. Hon. Pliny Norcross delivered the oration.

Task a Difficult One.
A Boston woman lost her bag that contained her address cards, a little money and a bedspread that she had begun to crochet when she was 11 years old, and had worked upon for 15 years, with it still unfinished. It is to be hoped the lady got her crocheting, for it is no wonder that she said she would go out of her mind if she did not get it back.

World's Tin Supply.
The latest and most authentic statistics on the subject show that three-quarters of all the tin used in the world comes from southeastern Asia. The total production annually amounts to something over 93,000 tons.

The Ticklemouse

By Roy Rutherford Bailey with Davy and Dorfy

Their Sane Fourth

If their father hadn't been suddenly called out of town the night before, the twins would probably have celebrated the glorious Fourth just like all the rest of Doverville.

Even then, if their mother hadn't wakened with a bad headache that morning, she would have taken them to the quiet village celebration and they would have told the merry mice a different story that night.

"But it's been such a queer, stupid Fourth," Davy told the Ticklemouse. "Not a firecracker or toy pistol or even a torpedo. They had a 'noisy' picnic, as they called it, on the Square, but we couldn't go. Seemed more like Sunday!"

Perhaps the Ticklemouse knew more about how it felt to be disappointed than Davy knew. Anyhow, he scratched his head as if thinking hard. "I have it," he said at last to Willy. "Let's take them to Grant Park!" And he sent Willy posthaste for his aeroplane.

It was a long flight to the encampment on Lake Michigan, most of the way against a heavy head wind. The lights in some of the skyscrapers were still twinkling, but the rest of Chicago was asleep.

"Over there," said Willy, "is the grandstand. Whole regiments drill and fight sham battles before it."

"What for?" asked Dorfy.

"So folks won't mix the firecrackers and torpedoes of course!" said Davy. "Please don't interrupt him, Dorfy. I want to hear about it."

"Seeing is better than hearing, my dear. Would you like to have them go a special drill, just for us?" The Ticklemouse smiled to see how Willy stared at the idea. "Just watch my smoke," he went on. "I'll weave a charm that beats six of the Catnip Spell, see if I don't."

For a few moments he waved his hands in silence. Then he muttered some magic words and a thin, fog-like haze spread out over the city of tents. Suddenly, from under the seat, the Ticklemouse drew a flashing sword with a sharp word of command. From every tent in the whole camp ground came a low, sleepy sigh. Soon the camp was astir, but not a word was spoken. Out of their tents poured the soldiers, staring straight before them as they fell into line. The artillery joined forces with the infantry, and even the horses stepped softly as ghosts.

"Why, can't the soldiers talk?" asked the puzzled twins.

The Mouse chuckled. "Not while my magic spell is working," he said. "They're all sound asleep!"

Sure enough! Under the power of his magic, the stern soldiers had risen to go through as ghostly a sham battle as ever soldiers fought. For though everything was perfect to the eye, not a sound came from the battlefield. Guns tried to rattle, cannons tried to roar, officers waved their swords and tried to shout their orders. But all that came from the weapons was a cloud of smoke.

It was as if a mighty wind were bearing the noise of battle away from the four while the whole struggle was in plain sight. The twins gazed spellbound; the Ticklemouse's eyes twinkled; and the Wishmouse got so excited he snatched off his cap and waved it with a loud "Hurrah!"

Bang, bang!—Bang! roared the guns of the startled sentries, who had seen nothing of the shadow battle. They fired in the direction of Willy's voice, and the bullets came fearfully close. With a blow of his knife the Ticklemouse set the aeroplane free and the motor screamed like an eagle as they headed homeward.

"Well, that celebration was sane enough, but none too safe toward the last! Did you see how quickly the army melted away when those guns went off?" laughed the Ticklemouse. "If a few musket shots had had that effect forty-nine years ago, we'd have had no country left to celebrate!"
